

$13.7 Million Zoltan Pali-Designed House

An impressive architectural masterpiece located off the sunset strip has just hit the market. This 4 bedroom, 7 bathroom pad has a home theater, a 980 bottle wine cellar, and a 4 car garage.

Designed by architect Zoltan Pali, and crafted by Dugally Oberfeld, the home is the perfect blend of indoor-outdoor living, with walls of glass that allow visitors to enjoy views of downtown LA or the ocean from almost anywhere on the property. The home, which has a price tag of $13.7 million, also boasts a pool and a 26 foot long fire trough.

Photos by Estella Sneider/Luxury Style Photography, courtesy of the official listing with Mauricio Umansky